

Curriculum Vitae

Qizhen Xie

PhD. Candidate at Brown University

Telephone: +1 (603) 892 7806 / e-mail: Qizhen\_xie@brown.edu

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Hellenistic History, Seleucid Empire, Land Economy and Concept of Property Ownership in the Hellenic World, Greek Epigraphy

EDUCATION

2019-ongoing PhD. Ancient History, Brown University

2021 M.A History, Brown University

2019 M.A History, University of New Hampshire

2016 B.A History (Honors) & Classics, University of New Hampshire

DISSERTAION

Geoarcheia: People, Power, and Landownership in 3rd-century Seleucid Anatolia (In-progress)

TEACHING

Spring 2023 TF – GREK 0200 Essentials of the Greek Language

Fall 2022 TA – GREK 0100 Essentials of the Greek Language

Spring 2022 TA – HIST 0150G History of Law: Great Trials

Fall 2021 TA – HIST 1205 The Long Fall of the Roman Empire

Summer 2021 TA – HIST 270B From the Columbian Exchange to Climate Change: Modern Global Environmental History

Spring 2021 TA – CLAS 1210 Archaic Greek History, c. 1200 to 479 BCE

Fall 2020 TA – CLAS 1320 Roman History II: The Roman Empire and Its Impact

EMPOLYMENT

2016-2017      Research Assistant      Dickinson Classics Commentaries, Carlisle, PA
 Projects edited: Greek-Chinese & Latin-Chinese Lexicons, Online version of Caesar's Gallic War and Catullus's poems in both Latin and Chinese.

PRESENTATIONS

Invited Talks

2023              “Epigraphic Sources and Land Institution of Early Seleucid Empire.” Southwest
 University, Chongqing, China. Jun. 30

Conference (accepted, will be presenting)

2024              “Land Transfer and Property Rights: Infrastructural Power in Seleucid Asia
 Minor.” Society for Classical Studies (SCS) Jan.

 “Covered up but not down below: Limited Reach of Seleucid Rural Administration in Western Anatolia.” North American Epigraphical Congress of Greek and Latin Epigraphy (NACGLE) IV Jan.

Conference Attended

New England Ancient History Colloquium, every year (biannual) from OCT 2019 to MAR 2023

ARCHAEOLOGICAL EXPERIENCE

2015              Excavation at Çadır Höyük, Sorgon, Yozgat, Turkey

Helped excavate and identify the artifacts from Chalcolithic to Byzantine period. Also involving photography, drawing, artifact maintenance and management of pottery storage.

RESEARCH PROJECTS

2016              Ethnic Identity and Redefinition of the Galatians in the Hellenistic World
 (Undergraduate Honors Thesis)

2018              The Achaeo-Laodicean Dynasty and Central-Peripheral Relationship in Early
 Seleucid Empire

AWARDS

- 2023            Research Fellowship – Program of Early Culture at Brown University
- 2016            Phi Beta Kappa Charter – Phi Beta Kappa Society of liberal arts and sciences
- Epsilon Upsilon Charter of Eta Sigma Phi – Eta Sigma Phi Classics Honor Society
- 2015            Undergraduate Research Fellowship – Hamel Center at University of New Hampshire
- Superior Work Reward in First Year Latin – Classics Department at UNH
- Phi Alpha Theta Charter – Phi Alpha Theta National History Honor Society

LANGUAGE EXPERIENCE

Seven years of coursework in Ancient Greek and Latin (passed PhD) language exams in these two languages set by Classics Department at Brown

Modern Languages: Mandarin Chinese (Native Speaker); Wu Chinese (Native Speaker); English (native level); French, German, and Italian (for reading)

REFERENCES

Prof. Graham Oliver, Classics, Brown University (graham\_oliver@brown.edu)

Prof. Kenneth Sacks, History, Brown University (kenneth\_sacks@brown.edu)

Prof. Christopher Francese, Classics, Dickinson College (francese@dickinson.edu)

Prof. Michael Leese, History, University of New Hampshire (Michael.leese@unh.edu)

Prof. Jonathan Conant, History, Brown University (Jonathan\_conant@brown.edu)